

A watercolor illustration of a two-story yellow building with a grey shingled roof, identified as the Candy House Gourmet. The building has several windows with red shutters and a sign above the entrance that reads "CANDY HOUSE". In front of the building, there are several vintage cars parked on a street. To the left, there's a smaller building and more trees. The overall style is soft and painterly, with a warm, nostalgic feel.

Candy House Gourmet has been dedicated to providing quality chocolates to its loyal customers since 1970!

From humble beginnings in historic Redings Mill near Route 66, a tradition was started and perfected. Only the finest ingredients go into our products and one taste will convince you that there is no substitute. The quality you'll taste in Candy House Gourmet's chocolates will bring you back to a sweeter and simpler time. It is our passion to serve up nostalgia in every bite and treat you to the total decadence you deserve. When visiting our chocolate factory and watching our candy makers create these candies, you'll understand how so much goes into making every bite the best it can be.
